

EVERYDAY CANDID CONVERSATIONS

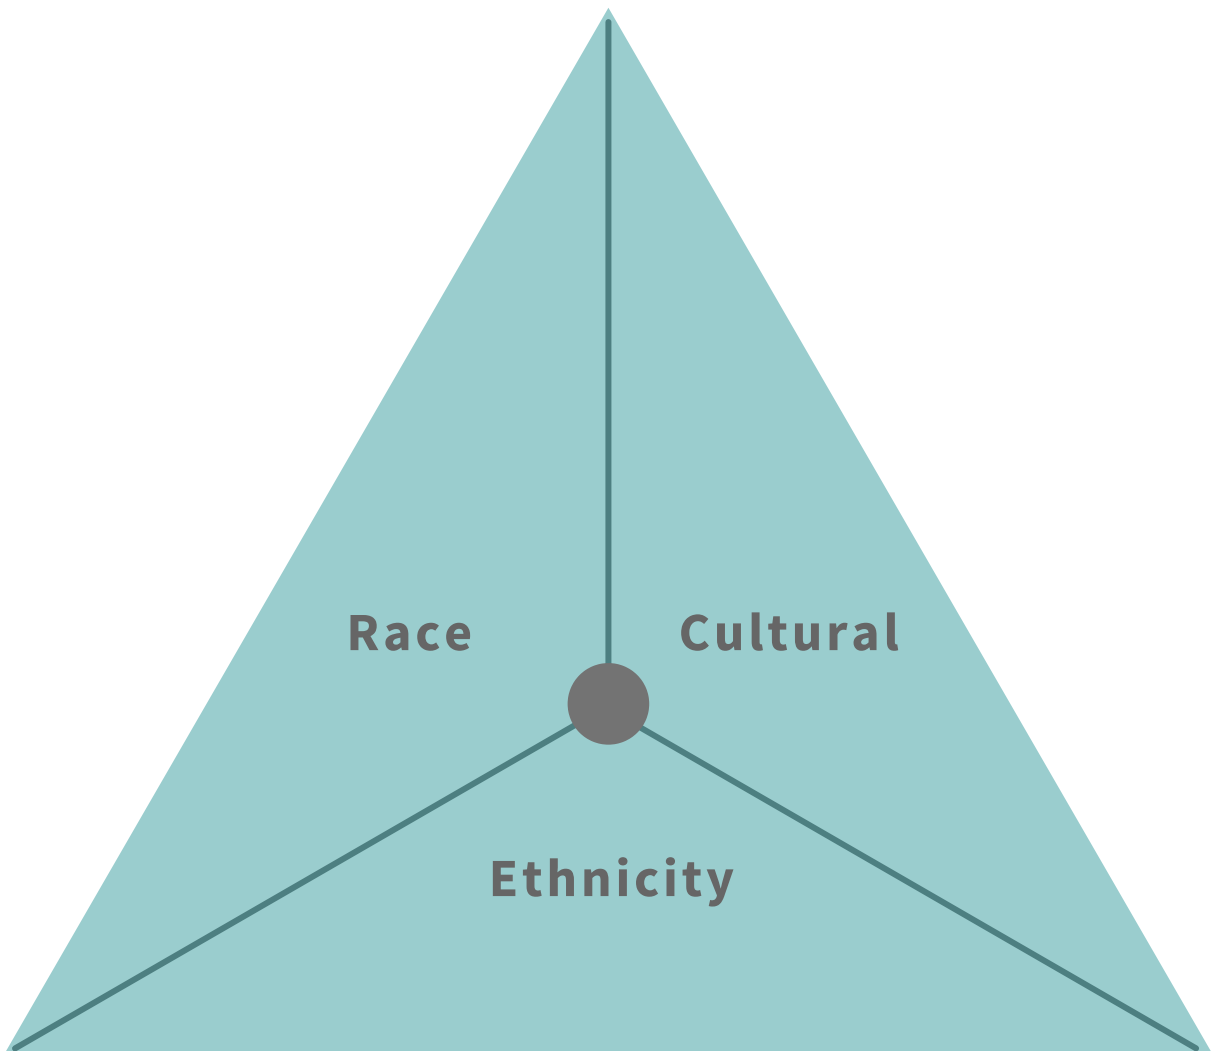

Where do We Start?

Give examples of how to start a conversation in these different situations. For example, "What do you have for lunch today? Did you see the game last night? Have you ever tried...."

Use a pencil and paper clip to create a spinner with the triangle below.

Each time you land on a situation:

Give one example of how to start a conversation.

Ask a question that could have many answers. Don't take over the conversation. Remember to take turns.
